Dear Mr. Martin:

Thank you for writing to the North Allegheny School District ("District") with your request for information pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law ("RTKL"), 65 P.S. 67.101, et seq. By your July 11, 2019 email, you requested:

- Pursuant to the state open records law 65 Pa. Cons. Stat. Secs. 67.101 to 67.3104, I write to request access to and a digital copy of the inspection report for North Allegheny School District where mold was discovered in August 2018. I also request access to and a digital copy of any inspection reports for environmental issues completed in 2019. If your agency does not maintain these public records, please let me know who does and include the proper custodian's name and address.

Please notify me if there will be any cost associated with this request before fulfilling it.

As provided by the open records law, I will expect your response within five (5) business days. See 65 Pa. Cons. Stat. Sec. 67.901.

If you choose to deny this request, please provide a written explanation for the denial including a reference to the specific statutory exemption(s) upon which you rely. Also, please provide all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material.

Your request for information is upheld in part and denied in part. All responsive documents are included with this email.

Portions of your request that are denied and reason for denial:

Pursuant to Section 708(b)(3)(iii), photos of classrooms within District buildings have been redacted. Disclosure of these photos creates a reasonable likelihood of endangering the personal security and/or the physical security of District buildings.

Also pursuant to Section 708(b)(6)(1)(A), email addresses of inspectors performing work for the inspection company have been redacted, as their email addresses are not published on the company's website.

You have the right to appeal this denial of information, in writing, to Mr. Erik Arneson, Executive Director, Office of Open Records, 333 Market Street, 16th Floor, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, 17101-2234. If you choose to file an appeal, you must do so within fifteen (15) business days of the mailing date of the District's response, as outlined in Section 1101 of the Right-to-Know Law. Please note that a copy of your original Right-to-Know request letter and this denial letter must be included when filing an appeal. The law also requires that you state the reasons why the record is a public record and address the reasons the School District has denied your request. Visit the Office of Open Records website at <http://openrecords.state.pa.us> for further information on filing an appeal. If you have further questions, please call Ms. Kelly Caldwell, the North Allegheny School District's Open Records Officer. Please be advised that this correspondence will serve to close this record with our office as permitted by law with respect to your request dated July 11, 2019.

Sincerely,

Kelly Caldwell
